

2015 Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough, New Zealand

WINE MAKER

David Clouston

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

An incredibly hot vintage with low tonnage, 2015 was picked exceptionally early in mid March. A blend of Awatere and Wairau fruit gives this wine a backbone of minerality with plenty of tropical characteristics. The grapes were gently pressed and fermented at cool temperatures to accentuate the pure aromatics.

Fragrant on the nose showing nectarine, passionfruit and herbaceous characters, followed by a succulent palate that is juicy and appealing. Classically expressed and immediately attractive. At its best: now to 2018
